

Stars

Bright and bitten
Partners in happy darkness
Free and breathing
and shouting for joy
See! Here we are! We are here!
We love you
We hear you
We see you
We move you
The dark sky holds them with no hands
Tenderly, lovingly giving them
Air and space and breath
And tells them:
Move, live and burn and
Give till the end
Smile and laugh over us
Weep and mourn us
Hope for us
Wait for us

The dark sky holds them with no hands
Tenderly, lovingly giving them
Air and space and breath
And tells them:
Move, live and burn and
Give till the end
Smile and laugh over us
Weep and mourn us
Hope for us
Wait for us
